The thresholds of the doors of Residence Hall are "well-worn" by the footsteps of those who so faithfully instructed, advised and guided scores of young people into the truth of God by the Holy Spirit.

Through these doors open many avenues of service for those who have been trained by our Alma Mater, and have realized the great command of God to "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

TYPICAL ROOM IN SCHULTZ HALL

SCHULTZ HALL

Spacious and majestic, Schultz Hall contributes to campus social, intellectual, and spiritual life as a men's dormitory and a center of campus activity.

Here 74 men make their college home in fellowship with Christian brothers in study and in communion with God. Here also is found the library, visual aids room, book store, dark room, and snack shop.

Bethany Hall, too, serves several purposes. In the basement you will find three classrooms, the first floor holds the administrative offices of the college, and the second floor is the home of thirty-two girls. This attractive building faces Rudisill Boulevard and seems to reach out an inviting hand to strangers. It is the scene of much activity, and almost any time of the day you will find students walking through its halls.

BETHANY HALL

HALLWAY OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES

FOUNDERS' MEMORIAL

This comparatively new building is the scene of many activities. It holds the practice rooms, several classrooms, the students' dining hall, and the Chapel. Each week-day morning at 9:50 you will find the students gathered for the Chapel service, which is a time of spiritual refreshing for each student. We are thankful for this building, which is dedicated to the Lord, where we can spend many happy hours.

PROVIDENCE HALL

There is never a dull moment in this active residence for girls. From morning 'til night the ticking of typewriters, the ringing of bells, the rushing to classes, and the happy voices of sixty girls all combine in making Providence Hall a typical girls' dormitory. It has been the scene of many spiritual victories, for from the weekly prayer meetings girls come refreshed in spirit. It has become a real second home to many girls.

As you walk across the campus you will find another building which many members of the staff, faculty and their families call their home. Residence Hall is the newest building on our campus and has proven to be a valuable addition. In Residence Hall students will also find the dispensary which is supervised by the registered nurses on the campus.

DEDICATION

Genuine love for Christ . . . sincere devotion to the task. These great virtues characterize the lives of three members of our faculty, who will retire at the close of this semester.

MRS. E. SMITH
MISS LILLIAN ZELLER
MR. P. L. EICHER

The lives of these mighty servants of God have been like a fresh flowing fountain of water to young people thru the years who have entered the halls of F.W.B.C. to drink at this fountain of truth and inspiration.

These Godly teachers have effectively helped design the future of scores of students thru the impulse of their devout faith in Christ. Their rich classroom instruction, deep spiritual insight, and cheerful counsel have won the respect, admiration, and love of hundreds of students thru their many years of diligent service.

To Mrs. Smith, Miss Zeller, and Mr. Eicher, we sincerely dedicate the 1952 Light Tower with a prayer of thanks to God for the impact of their lives.

TRAINING FOR SERVICE,
SERVICE IN TRAINING

Dr. Witmer
President
A.B., M.A., LL.D., Ph.D.

BUSY AT WORK

Through Dr. Witmer's true greatness, marked by sincere humility and trust in God; and through his scholarly presentation of the unsearchable riches of Christ, we have been drawn closer to Christ. We appreciate the influence of his testimony, and we know that his heart, mind, soul, and strength are dedicated to Christ and to the school, and he has done much to further the cause of Bible Colleges and Bible Institutes throughout this country.

Dean Neuenschwander

Dean
A.A., A.B., B.D.

His willingness "to serve rather than to be served" has made Mr. Neuenschwander an ideal Dean. Students are free to discuss problems with him or ask advice of him because of his understanding heart and quick mind, accompanied by a sense of humor. His consecrated life has been an inspiration to those who know him.

Mrs. Ione Fitch

Dean of Women

Mrs. Fitch, our Dean of Women, always has a kind smile and cheerful word for those she meets. Her gracious manner and her Spirit-filled life have made the college students respect and admire her.

Mr. Harvey Mitchell

A.B., M.A.

Registrar

We have all learned to appreciate this man with the large heart, the large vision, and with the steadiness of purpose. No matter how many dark problems come up in his busy day, Mr. Mitchell always has a cheery answer. His life truly radiates the life of Christ.

Mr. Cyril Eicher

Th.B.; A.B.

Assistant Treasurer

Although you would think that the one who "handles the money" for a college would be someone with an unpleasing disposition, our Assistant Treasurer, Mr. Eicher, is quite the contrary. His warm personality, and his Christ centered life have made him a capable and well-liked Bible teacher.

Mr. O. Carl Brown

A.B., S.T.B., M.A.

Christian Service Director

The instruction in Bible studies has inspired many of Mr. Brown's students to dig deeper for the treasures in God's Word. As Director of Christian Service, he has a part in scattering some of these treasures to others.

To the '52 grad of Ft. Wayne Bible College the future is as bright as the promises of God. We go to our generation to preach the hope and joy of the gospel, but we go not alone for He is with us. We graduate from our cherished alma mater into the higher calling of His service. We trust that you who remain will soon join us in the fields of service.

IN MEMORIAM

MOTHER RAMSEYER

The memory of our Mother will linger long in our memories. Who can forget that as founder of the Sunshine Makers, she endeared herself to children everywhere? And can we ever forget that she spent many hours in prayer for the Fort Wayne Bible College? Again, we shall ever remember her Spirit-filled, Christ-radiating life that made her a welcome person anywhere. We shall never forget her humble spirit that took no credit to herself.

Surely she could say with the Apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness. . ."

With the desire that students' lives be instruments highly sensitive to the touch of the Master's hand, the Music Staff strives to train students the value of the ability not only to produce but also to enjoy good music. The Music Staff emphasizes that in music God must be glorified, and special attention is given to technical skill so that nothing will distract from the glory of Christ, who is our strength and song.

THE MINISTRY OF GOSPEL TEAMS

“Service in training” is a very important phase in the curriculum of Fort Wayne Bible College.

Each week between 30 and 40 students close their books, put their pens and typewriters aside, and desert the campus for various weekend practical service assignments on one of eight organized teams.

Most of these teams are musical groups and speakers, who travel to churches to hold services and help out in special meetings.

Churches of all sizes and many denominations weekly provide teams with valuable training as well as receive blessings through team ministries. They travel to churches in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, and Michigan, and during vacations they penetrate Pennsylvania, Maryland, and west into Iowa, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The F.W.B.C. School of Music not only teaches students to appreciate fine music, but also encourages those with musical abilities to develop their talents. The value of music in Christian service cannot be overemphasized for those who are going into the world to spread the Gospel.

One of the outstanding recitals this year was presented by Mr. Raymond McAfee, Minister of Music at the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Chicago. His exceptional talent and his testimony in song were a blessing to all who heard him.

The Messiah Chorus

The A Cappella Choir

This year the A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Prof. Oliver Steiner, made a tour through parts of the East, including Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, and Indiana. They gave their testimony through song in as many as twenty churches.

Three of the numbers used by the choir were composed by Prof. Rene Frank, distinguished composer and teacher of music.

In addition to the tour, the choir gave a thirty-minute concert over the Mutual Broadcasting system, as one of the College Choir Series Broadcasts.

RADIO . . .

THE CHAPEL SINGERS

From 17 radio stations in the United States and Hawaii, and by short wave around the world from HCJB in Quito, Ecuador, "Sunrise Chapel" continues to provide inspiration and spiritual blessing to countless numbers of people. Broadcast in Ft. Wayne on WKJG, Monday through Friday from 7:30 to 7:45 A. M., the program features the hymns of the Chapel Singers, together with soloists or small groups, and the sunrise meditations of Dr. Witmer.

Besides its spiritual ministry, "Sunrise Chapel" provides excellent training for young people interested in radio as a channel for Christian service . . . a powerful means for reaching the largest number of people in the shortest amount of time.

STUDENT PASTORS
THE TRACT TEAM

These two groups form a vital part of the practical work which the students are encouraged to do. The student pastors have churches in the city and neighboring towns, while the members of the tract team go out on Saturday and Sunday evenings to do personal work among those who do not go to church.

ACTIVITIES

CHARLES KAUFFMAN
President

The Student Council

A problem without a solution leads to frustration. Student government doesn't have all the answers to student problems but it is one of the most practical, democratic, and Christian-like ways to seek a solution or explanation for them.

The cooperation and interest of all the members have resulted in some outstanding student-conducted chapel services and a growing objective interest in student government.

A progressive student body needs a progressive and sound student government.

"Will the meeting come to order?"

Child Evangelism Teachers

A child won to Christ means a life saved from sin and ruin, and a life of service for the Master. Mindful of this, and of Christ's words, "Feed My Lambs," student activity reaches into this needy field. Students conduct 24 weekly Bible clubs for school age boys and girls in the city of Fort Wayne. Many of these teachers reach children who have never attended Sunday School and thus have the opportunity of telling the "Good News" to these little ones who are so precious in His sight.

CLARICE JONES
Student Director

Prayer Leaders

Each afternoon as the 4:55 bell rings the familiar greeting, "Going to prayer meeting?", is heard. The students set aside thirty minutes every day to pray for missionaries at home and abroad. Prayer requests for these meetings are obtained from the missionaries themselves, periodicals, and the students. Through these sacred gatherings, the Lord helps not only the missionaries, but also calls many students to serve on the mission field as these burdens are laid upon their hearts.

The Youth Conference

The 1951 Youth Conference sparked by inspirational music, challenging testimonies, and stirring messages was the largest ever held at Fort Wayne Bible College. Messages by the Rev. Leonard Ravenhill of Manchester, England and Thomis Haire of Lisburn, Ireland resulted in a great harvest of lives for Christ.

An annual affair, the Youth Conference gave evidence of careful planning and excellent co-operation from the student body.

Campus Echo

. . . Sure is fun.

The Campus Echo has four main objectives as the school newspaper. They are: to further Christian fellowship; to promote a wholesome school spirit; to provide a medium through which the students may express opinions and gain journalistic experience; and, finally, to publish news which is of general interest to the students. In accomplishing these objectives, the Campus Echo unites with various extra-curricular activities in developing and promoting a more harmonious school life.

Assembling the Light Tower

In presenting your Light Tower of 1952, we should like to portray pictorially how the Fort Wayne Bible College is helping each student to grow "in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and man." Each activity is directed toward glorifying Christ our Saviour and toward the fulfilling of Christ's command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Also it is our sincere wish that in years to come your 1952 Light Tower will bring back many happy memories both to our students and to each of our alumnus.

Investment In Life

Giving to Fort Wayne Bible College to educate youth for Christian service is the best possible investment. The values of a Christian education do not decline with stock market nor deteriorate with time. They multiply in number as one Spirit-filled evangel is used to bring others into the kingdom. The investment is in lives that yield dividends that are eternal.

Fort Wayne Bible College deserves the support of Christian people. Its Bible-centered curriculum and Christ-centered program meet the most important need of youth by providing FAITH. Having accepted the responsibility of educating young people for places of service, it feels obligated to provide the most competent teachers and adequate facilities.

The College merits the confidence of wise stewardship. It is carefully managed and furnishes its patrons with comprehensive reports of its educational and financial operations. It has an A-1 record of financial stability and integrity.

The College invites support through contributions, annuity gifts, and bequests for the following needs:

1. To supplement income for current operations.
By giving $10.00 or more per year for this need, donors become members of the Patrons' Council.
2. To provide funds for major improvements and expansion.
3. To provide scholarships for deserving students.

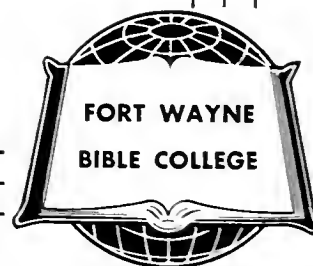

Correspondence concerning support of the College may be addressed to the President. Inquiries concerning courses may be addressed to the Registrar.

Congratulations to:

1. The Graduating Class of 1952
upon their achievement of another goal in the preparation for a high and holy calling.
2. The Light Tower Staff
for work well done.
3. Dr. S. A. Witmer and the Faculty for high-calibre, spiritual instruction as their contribution in fitting laborers for the fields ripe into harvest.
4. Fort Wayne Bible College
for presenting this graduating class and more than two-score other classes of well-trained, Spirit-filled soul winners to labor in the Lord's harvest.
